

Privacy Policy

At UnifyOrdering we understand that data protection and privacy is of paramount importance for suppliers and producers in the wholesale food industry.

We understand that customer information, sales history, contact details and any other data is the lifeblood of a wholesale business. UnifyOrdering will never share or disclose this information with any third parties without the prior written consent of a supplier.

Furthermore UnifyOrdering makes no claim on any supplier data that may be collected on the platform. Any data compiled is done so for the sole purpose of the provision of the service. UnifyOrdering commits that it will be in breach of contract if we ever seek to market, sell or distribute this information with any third parties.

In the event of a sale of UnifyOrdering, all suppliers will have the option to permanently remove themselves and/or their data history from the platform prior to the commencement of any sale.

In the event of a supplier leaving the UnifyOrdering platform all data related to that supplier, current and historic will be permanently deleted.

Data Security - All data on UnifyOrdering is held in the most secure Amazon servers available, with daily back ups, a log of all user activity, regular monitoring with configured database protection against brute force attacks.

We look forward to working with you to build a safer, more prosperous future.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Barry McNerney". The signature is written in a cursive style with a horizontal line underneath.

Barry McNerney - Operations Manager - UnifyOrdering Ltd.